Description

Welcome to this charming 3-bedroom, 3.5-bath home in Old South, full of character and nestled on a cul-de-sac in a quiet enclave with a wonderful sense of community. With great neighbours and an annual fall block party, this is a place where you\'ll truly feel at home. The main living room is a standout, featuring open ceilings and a striking angular fireplace feature. The second level overlooks the living space below, creating an open, airy, and connected feel throughout the home. A wood-burning fireplace and additional electric fireplace add warmth and character. The finished basement offers valuable additional living space, along with a workbench and several included tools. A partially finished bathroom provides an opportunity to add your own personal touches and further enhance the space. A single-car garage offers added convenience and storage. This is a truly unique home with plenty of original character, distinctive architectural details, and a layout full of possibilities. A wonderful opportunity to make a special space your own while enjoying the warmth and charm of an established neighbourhood. (id:6772)
